Dear Jim:

It was good to get your letter and to learn that you will be up for some of the Young Lectures. Your graduate students will be most cordially welcome. David Donald is staying at the Parkview. His outside activities are strictly up to him. We certainly have no objection to you and your graduate students having a dinner meeting with him. You had your meeting with Holman at either the Knickerbocker on Poplar or the Embers on Park. I rather think it was the Knickerbocker.

Just remember that Ara and I shall be expecting you and Dutch for the open house. I hope that you can attend.

You promised to send me the vita sheet so that Walter Johnson and I could use it to keep those fearless statesmen, Ross Barnett and Paul Johnson, from running you out of the state of Mississippi. I hope that you will not neglect this any longer.

I am sorry that I had to be in Mississippi the day you gave your lecture at the teachers meeting here. I did not run out to prevent hearing you. I am looking forward to seeing you at Ashville and to hearing your presidential paper.

Cordially,

Enoch L. Mitchell, Chairman
Department of History
